

Texas State Teachers Association:

Inspired teaching starts here.

3 credits, 3 weeks, 100% online

University of Phoenix enables you to earn continuing teacher education credits conveniently and efficiently.

- Choose from more than 80 graduate-level courses in areas such as administration, early childhood, mathematics, reading, special education, and technology.
- Apply what you learn to your everyday classroom requirements and the needs of your school and students.
- Enjoy the convenience of online learning and interacting with peers at times and places that fit your schedule.
- Learn from professional educators who deliver a curriculum designed for today's educational field.

Enroll now and save up to $75.

Apply to University of Phoenix and start your first course between April 3 and May 29, 2007, and we'll pay your online resource fee. Save up to $75!*

To register or learn more, contact an enrollment representative or visit us online.

800-238-4308
uopx.com/edu

* Applications for admissions must be received by Tuesday, May 22, 2007. This offer is only available for online Continuing Teacher Education courses and does not apply to MAED or doctoral programs. This offer is available only for first-time online Continuing Teacher Education students. University of Phoenix is accredited by The Higher Learning Commission and is a member of the North Central Association (www.ncahlc.org; 312-263-0456).

NOTE: Continuing education courses are not intended to transfer to a Master of Arts in Education degree program at University of Phoenix. Although these courses are accepted by some state departments of education toward certifications and endorsements, this may not be the case in all states. Please check your own state department of education and your school district for professional growth credit.

Transferability of credit is at the discretion of the accepting institution. It is the student's responsibility to confirm whether or not credits earned at the University of Phoenix will be accepted by another institution of the student's choice.

© 2006-2007 University of Phoenix, Inc. All rights reserved.