COLLEGE TO COLLEAGUE

TSTA Student Program

Your Guide As You Go From COLLEGE TO COLLEAGUE

WE ARE TSTA-SP! Not just better, set apart!

MORE THAN JUST LIABILITY INSURANCE!

Through engagement in community outreach projects, our members develop leadership skills that benefit them in the college classroom, their own classroom, and life.

MORE THAN A NAME OR AN EMAIL!

TSTA-SP members receive professional development while they're still in college — on topics such as PDAS, cultural competency, classroom management, and legal rights and responsibilities.

MORE THAN JUST FREE!

Through the NEA Member Benefits program, our members save money on auto insurance; enjoy discounts on travel, shopping and dining; and have access to low-interest-rate credit programs.

WE'RE SET APART BECAUSE:

1. We believe that all children deserve to be educated in a great public school.
2. We believe that public school employees should have the right to bargain their employment contracts — after all, a teacher's working environment is a child's learning environment.
3. We believe that collective and political action are the surest ways to achieve meaningful change in our public schools — for children, teachers, communities and Texas.

WE'RE SET APART BECAUSE OUR MEMBERS ARE ACTIVISTS!

BRIGHT IDEAS FOR YOUR LAST YEAR IN COLLEGE

1. Visit your college's career planning center.
2. Gather information about job market trends.
3. Find out about the supply/demand of new teachers where you want to teach.
4. Know certification requirements for Texas or states where you want to teach.
5. Prepare a cover letter, resume, and portfolio.
6. Learn interview techniques.
7. Attend job fairs.
8. Do your research.
9. Develop questions to ask during the interview.
10. Contact TSTA-SP as you transition from college to colleague.
